

Collinson Insurance Brokers Ltd have expanded their client base in the employee benefits sector by facilitating the arrangement of dental insurance provision for the employees of Vodafone and various Police Federations across the UK.

Tim Gowler, Divisional Director at Collinson Insurance Brokers said “We have a wealth of experience and contacts within the Lloyds market to ensure clients can get access to the insurance solutions that they want. We look forward to developing long term profitable relations with both Vodafone and the Police Federation.”

The Collinson Insurance Brokers website can be found at: www.collinsonib.com

About the Collinson Insurance Group.

The Collinson Insurance Group is the insurance management division of The Collinson Group Ltd providing world class insurance solutions - with a global reach. With a track record of more than 25 years of innovation in Insurance and a reputation for pioneering niche insurance marketing we bring a depth of product and marketing understanding to build, deliver and market retail insurance.

The Collinson Insurance Group is made up of underwriting, wholesale, broking and retail divisions.